

Describing themselves as "one of the most unique and original bands in New York" BNB certainly live up to that description. Band leader Tom Gould's songs often have an undefinable quality, bouncing from pop to jazz to world rhythms - sometimes within a single song. Constantly re-inventing themselves, the Bossa Nova Beatniks are a very dynamic live act as well. Expect a wide range of emotions and rhythms to flood from the stage. This new website offers a look at the members, concert info, music downloads and more.

Musician's Home Pages

Here they are, from all over the globe. All kinds of people, making all kinds of music. It's a beautiful thing! But as they say, beauty is in the eye of the beholder so keep in mind that we at samash.com assume no responsibility of what you may find while visiting these websites.

Here are this week's listings. Be sure to visit the Musician's Home Pages Archive to check out some great websites. To list your website, fill out the submission form at the bottom of the page.

MHP Of The Week

The Bossa Nova Beatniks

Describing themselves as "one of the most unique and original bands in New York" BNB certainly live up to that description. Band leader Tom Gould's songs often have an undefinable quality, bouncing from pop to jazz to world rhythms - sometimes within a single song. Constantly re-inventing themselves, the Bossa Nova Beatniks are a very dynamic live act as well. Expect a wide range of emotions and rhythms to flood from the stage. This new website offers a look at the members, concert info, music downloads and more.